Joshua Kane performs Shakespeare's Murderers, Madmen, and Kings!

"A voice that mesmerizes..."
— NY Daily News

"A bravura performance that challenged and thrilled, winning him a heartfelt standing ovation. American accents and bold characters gave Shakespeare an immediacy and accessibility that made my audience feel Shakespeare belonged to them."

Relying only on the power of Shakespeare's language, classically-trained actor Joshua Kane takes audiences on a whirlwind tour where they meet such dazzling personalities as Richard III, Oberon, and Henry V, breathe the air of the Roman Senate, and storm the breach at Harfleur.

This fast-paced one-man show is ideal for newcomers to the Classics, and a delightful rediscovery for Shakespeare fans. Also available for student matinees.

"You know something unique is happening when fifth graders in a small Nebraska town make their parents bring them to a public performances of Shakespeare because of what they saw in school that day."

— Charles Bethea, Lied Center, NE

About Joshua Kane

Raised in an illegal boarding house and obsessed from an early age with books, magic, spoken word, fire-eating, and the theatre, Joshua Kane was destined for a career on the stage, or as an international spy. He is a classically-trained actor who has studied with such luminaries as Stella Adler, Bobby Lewis, Marcel Marceau, Patsy Rodenburg and the National Shakespeare Conservatory.
